Special services in honor of the occasion were held in the morning at St. Patrick's Cathedral Church. The Ancient Order of Hibernians, St. Patrick's Beneficial Society and other Catholic organizations assembled at St. Patrick's Hall, where a line was formed. Chief Marshal James A. Hogan was in command. With the green flag at the head of the column the societies then marched to the church on Twenty-fith Sireet.

High mass was held at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Father H. J. McKeefrey, was celebrant; Father John, O. S. B., of St. Mary's, was deacon; Father Masrey, of Sacred Heart, sub-deacon, and Father Waters, of Manchester, master of ceremonics. Bishop Van de Vyver was present in the sanctuary with the following priests.

E XECUTOR'S SALE BY PUBLIC AUCTION OF THE PROPERTY No. 228 West Broad Street, CORNER MADISON, WITH THE TWO-STORY FRAME DWELLING IN REAR THEREOF, No. 305 North Madison St.

By virtue of the will of Mrs. Katherine Senf, deceased, and for the purpose of division, I will sell by public auction, on the premises, on MoNDAY, MARCH 23, 1900, at 5 o'colock P. Mt., the valuable cornerstore property, No. 228 W. Bread Street, corner Madison, with lot 20x132 feet il inches to an alley in common 17 feet 8 inches wide.

This store is a most substantial one, being woll built, having three stories above collar, and besides the large and attractive store there is a good dwelling with the modern conveniences above the store, which could easily, if desired, be rented independently of the store. The store and dwelling is now under an annual lease of $700 to an excellent tenant, and the frame dwelling in the rear, known as No. 205 N. Madison Street, contains about five rooms and rents for $10 per month; the entire property renting at the rate of $20 per annum.

This is a most desirable corner, being immediately in front of the Postoffice Sub-station A, in the rapidly developing section of Broad Street, and should command the attention of all parties seeking a permanent and desirable investment, as the property will each year materially increase in value.

TERMS—One-third cash, balance at Tand 2 years, with interest added and socured by deed of trust upon the property; or the whole in cash, at the option of the purchaser.
